DAYTON EMPIRE. (DAILY AND WERKLY.)

Priority of Constitutional Liberty, the Herrin, once more greets you, and takes a placalong with the other Democratic papers of the State, as an advocate of your principles and defender of your rights. It sciently expects at your hands a your rights. It ardeatly expects at your hands a warm and friendly reseption.

An important campuign is below us, franght with more of good or evit thus any which has ever presented it. The Life of the Nation and the laberties of the people are at stake. The coming months are pregnant with mighty events, and every man should be fully "payled" on the current issues, so as to be able to perform his duty as becomes a freeman. The great battle between Centralized Power and Individual Liberty—Demogracy and Despotism—as now being fought. If our people are true to themselves, the Constitution and the subline teachings of our patriot forefathers, the contest cannot be doubtful. The forefathers and then Green and Meade, on the contest cannot be doubtful. The forefathers, the contest cannot be doubtful. The forefathers, the contest cannot be doubtful. The forefathers and the first forefathers are forefathers. great mission of the Democratic party, which has ever stood as the bulwark of the Union and the champion of the Constitution, renders its entire unity and hold attitude, in thus hour of national peril, a matter of ation of Democratic principles as expounded by Jef-forson and Jackson. The most momentous results hang upon the issue. The peat is dead, save in its essents of experiences. The Constitution, if preserved, a the bescon-light that will guide us to a point of safety from the present storm and conflict; if trans-pled under foot and descreyed, we are forever lost in darkness, gloom, anarchy. It is the mission of the Democratic party to preserve inter that Constitution which gave us a Union. To that party alone may con-servative citizens look for relief and a happy return which gare us a Union. To this part and a happy return to the proud days of the Republic, when peace emiled and prosperity reigned throughout the land. It is uncustionably the true Union party of the present day.
